

Oxford University Interdisciplinary seminar series
HIV&AIDS Prevention, Care & Policy.

Michaelmas Term, November 2011

Tuesday 5-6:30 pm, Weeks 5-8

Violet Butler Room, Barnett House, 32 Wellington Square
Centre for AIDS Interdisciplinary Research at Oxford, Department of Social Policy &
Intervention & Department of Public Health & Primary Care
Convener: Dr Lucie Cluver

8 November

Dr Jonny Steinberg 'At first blush: the consequences of how biomedical treatment of AIDS arrives'

Oxford University and University of Cape Town

15 November

Dr Kasia Malinowska-Sempruch 'Illicit drug policies and the HIV epidemic'
Director, Global Drugs Policy Program, OSI

22 November

Dr Justin Parkurst 'Addressing the social and structural drivers of HIV: the need for an explicit normative framework to guide intervention and action.'
London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine

25 November

Oxford Student HIV/AIDS Research Day

Wolfson College, Oxford

Keynote speaker: Prof Sarah Rowland Jones, Oxford University
Professor of Immunology, Weatherall Institute of Molecular Medicine

29 November

Dr Lucie Cluver 'Spies, gangsters and Ambassadors' tea parties: Getting HIV research into policy in Southern Africa'

Oxford University

If you have any access requirements please contact Sharon Long (sharon.long@spi.ox.ac.uk)